Final Reflection

1. I encountered problems using the Custom Vision AI Portal as it got stuck loading the account for hours:

I solved this by using the Python SDK instead of the portal

2. I also encountered problems trying to extract sentiment and emotions from the recorded video using Video Indexer. The fix was to record a video that had audio as the Video indexer identifies emotions based on audio and Speech cues.